

The Boys & Girls Club Scholarship Program exists to provide financial assistance to families that might not otherwise be able to afford the full cost of summer camp. Scholarships may be granted based on income or special circumstances. The assistance is granted in the form of partial tuition scholarship contingent upon the availability of funds. Eligibility is determined on a case-by-case basis. Anyone found to be falsifying information will be subject to repayment of scholarship award, and ineligible for any future scholarships.

To be eligible, you must complete all sections of the application. Additional financial documentation demonstrating need may be requested and must be provided for your application to be considered.
